About Lulama

Lulama is a trained actress, voice over artist, writer, teacher and producer. She is the founder of Lama Drama Academy at Eden Studio in Ballito. This academy offers drama classes to children ages 5-18 for groups and individual training.

Lulama Dingani is an actress, voice artist, writer, teacher and producer. After graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Live Performance in 2017, Lulama was casted in South African multi-award winning telenovela, Isithembiso. With education always at the forefront of Lulama's mission, she traveled to Beijing where her career began. Since then she has developed and refined a curriculum that provides her students with a well-rounded, inspiring and comprehensive education in drama.

Lulama's
Background

Lama Drama Academy Mission

In this fast paced and ever-changing world we live in, children don't have many safe spaces to express themselves freely. That's what Lama Drama Academy is here for! A drama programme designed for children aged five to eighteen years old, where they are provided with the stage, skills and inspiration to be whoever they want to be

"The role a teacher plays in the success of a child's life is bigger than most see it to be. I started my drama journey at an early age and unfortunately I was exposed to several teachers whose method was to break me down in order to build me up. That didn't work for me and many of my peers and this will not be my approach. I will nurture your child's talents, build their confidence and teach them to hold themselves to a high standard. Whether they decide to pursue acting or not, they will go into the world knowing who they are and having the utmost belief in themselves. To me, this isn't a business, it is a safe space for learning and growing."
